

5 Keys to Relignite LifeWork Purpose & Passion

Ready for a Change but Stuck in Limbo about "What's Next?"

You'll leave this short interactive workshop with a powerful map that charts a clear way forward to your passionate next chapter.

Sunday, June 15th; 1-3pm

Pay-What-You-Can ~ Studio Fundraiser (Bring a snack to share.)

In this workshop you'll learn:

- The "New Fire Map" that's guided thousands to discover their next fulfilling work path.
- An affirming new perspective for how to move forward even when you're not clear what you want next.
- A natural process for navigating the uncertain time "Between-Dreams" – when you know what you don't want but lack a compelling new dream.

Imagine... feeling on-track and hopeful again. With a clear sense of what you can do now to discover and live a passionate next lifework that fully taps into your gifts, and is more alive, fulfilling, and successful than ever.

This workshop is for you if...

- You're successful, but find yourself unexpectedly "Between-Dreams." You're clear what you don't want, yet don't have burning clarity for what you DO want next.
- You're employed but questioning your direction. The spark is gone, and you're ready for something more meaningful.
- You're unemployed, by choice or not, and ready for a new direction. And for work that's more than a JOB.
- You're preparing for retirement, or newly retired, and unclear "What's Next."
- You're navigating major transition in some key areas of your life.

If You're Ready For "New Fire" – This May Be Just The Starting Point You've Been Asking For.
